

THE HOLIDAY POLKA

Words by MARY K. SARLOW

Music by DON LARGE

Bright tempo

The hall is gay with lan - tern light, The walls are dec - o - ra - ted bright, While danc - ers cel - e - brate the night to The Hol - i - day Polk - a. The hap - pi - ness re - fect - ed there makes for a real - ly gay af - fair, As coup - les dance with - out a care to The Hol - i - day Polk - a. The Detailed description: The image shows a musical score for guitar. It consists of five staves of music in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a 2/4 time signature. Each staff contains guitar tablature (numbers 1-15) and lyrics. Chord symbols (G, C, F) are placed above the staves. The lyrics are: 'The hall is gay with lantern light, The walls are decorated bright, While dancers celebrate the night to The Holiday Polka. The happiness reflected there makes for a really gay affair, As couples dance without a care to The Holiday Polka. The'.

Copyright 1958 Plymouth Music Co., Inc., New York